Post 9/10/63

Rocket Ship Base Reported in Cuba

United Press International

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 9 An anti-Castro Cuban refugee group charged today that Russian technicians are constructing a base in Cuba for vessels designed to carry medium-range rockets.

The revolutionary Student Directorate said it had been informed by sources in Cuba that the ships will be disguised as fishing boats. The rockets will "place all Americas in danger," it said.